Admission to M. Phil. & Ph. D. Programmes, 2007-08

The National University of Educational Planning and Administration (NUEPA), fully maintained by the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India, is a premier organization of its kind in South Asia engaged in research and training in planning and administration of all stages of education.

NUEPA offers full-time M. Phil. Programme and both full-time and part-time Ph. D. Programmes in educational policy, planning, finance and administration from a broader inter-disciplinary social science perspective. The focus areas of research cover school education, higher education, inclusive education, constitutional rights and law, management information system, etc. from both national and international development perspectives.

Eligibility and Application Process

- A candidate seeking admission to the M. Phil/Ph. D. programme shall have a minimum of 55% marks (50% for SC/ST candidates) or its equivalent grade in Master's Degree in Education, Social Sciences, Sciences, Commerce, Management, Law and allied disciplines from a recognized university.
- Candidates who are yet to clear their final examination at the Master's level are also eligible to apply. However, they have to submit the proof of having qualified in the examination latest by 31st May, 2007 as their selection for admission to M. Phil/Ph.D Programme will be subject to the above-mentioned eligibility conditions.
- The NET qualified candidates, who have been awarded Junior Research Fellowships by the UGC-CSIR, with the above-mentioned educational qualifications can also apply.
- In addition, the part-time candidates for Ph. D. Programme should have at least two years of teaching/research experience in educational planning and/or administration.

Government officials working in the field of educational planning and administration, with a minimum of 2 years of experience, are also eligible for the part-time Ph. D. Programme.

- The National University will follow all mandatory provisions of the reservation policy of the Government of India.

How to Apply

Candidates may apply in the prescribed form, separately available for M. Phil. and Ph. D. Programmes, along with three copies of the brief write-up on the proposed research topic (in about 2500 words) which the candidate desires to pursue within the broad framework of educational policy, planning and administration. Besides providing an idea regarding the area of research proposed to be pursued, the write-up may also be used by the University as one of the parameters for initial shortlisting of candidate. The Application Form and the Prospectus can either be downloaded from our website: www.nuepa.org or obtained through a request along with a demand draft of Rs. 100/- in favour of the Registrar, NUEPA, payable at New Delhi & addressed to the Registrar, NUEPA, 17-B, Sri Aurobindo Marg, New Delhi 110016.

Mode of Selection

Short-listed candidates will be subjected to second level screening through which the University will assess the general awareness of the candidate about the educational issues, comprehension of research literature and ability to interpret data and draw inferences.

Fellowships

NUEPA offers up to 10 Fellowships each for its M. Phil. and full-time Ph. D. Programme as per the UGC norms.

Last Date of Application

Application complete in all respect should reach the Registrar on or before 31st March 2007. For further details, please visit our website.
