Message from the Vice-Chancellor

The National University of Educational Planning and Administration (NUEPA), established by the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India, is a premier organization dealing with capacity building and research in planning and management of education not only in India but also in South Asia. In recognition of the pioneering work done by the organization in the field of educational planning and administration, the Government of India have empowered it to award its own degrees by way of conferring it the status of Deemed to be University in August 2006. Like any Central University, NUEPA is fully maintained by the Government of India.

The National University comprises ten Departments. It has an outstanding multi-disciplinary faculty and a library which is well stocked with a large number of books, national and international journals and official documents in the area of educational planning and administration. In addition to its multifarious activities, the National University offers M.Phil., Full-time Ph.D. and Part-time Ph.D. programmes in educational policy, planning and administration from a broader inter-disciplinary social science perspective. The research programmes of NUEPA cover all levels and types of education from both national and international development perspectives.

NUEPA has extensive collaborative arrangements with reputed institutions within and outside India such as a International Institute of Educational Planning and also works closely with UNESCO, UNICEF and other international agencies. Students thereby get the opportunity to interact with scholars visiting from various institutions from across the world.

We look forward to receiving young scholars at the university who are committed to the pursuit of knowledge and excellence in education through M.Phil. and Ph.D. programmes.

1. About the National University

The National University, a premier organization of its kind in South Asia, is engaged in capacity building and research in policy making, planning and administration of education. The university is fully maintained by the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India. Apart from other activities of teaching and research, the University is also engaged in preparing skilled manpower through its M. Phil. and Ph.D. programmes for planning and management of education in the country.

The National University maintains a state of the art library, which caters to the needs of the scholars interested to work in the area of educational policy, planning and administration and related interdisciplinary subjects. The library provides latest information to facilitate the faculty, researchers, administrators, policy makers and participants of its capacity building programmes. NUEPA library has a collection of more than 60,000 books. It regularly subscribes to about 240 Indian and foreign journals and periodicals. The library is fully computerized and it provides referencing services through Internet, ERIC and DELNET based virtual library mode.

The University's Documentation Centre has a wide and rich collection of more than 18,500 volumes on educational planning and administration. The Documentation Centre offers a unique collection of official reports, documents and other government publications such as state gazetteers, state census reports, world handbooks, educational surveys, five-year plans, etc. It also holds a rich collection of dissertations of the University's Diploma Course in Educational Planning and Administration (DEPA) and International Diploma Course in Educational Planning and Administration (IDEPA). The university is well equipped in terms of basic infrastructure to promote teaching and research. It has modern classrooms, state of the art ICT labs with internet connectivity, modern gym, etc.

International Participants on a field visit

Faculty

The University has highly qualified interdisciplinary faculty having rich national and international experience, supported by competent administrative staff.

2. M. Phil. - Ph. D. and Ph. D. Programmes 2010-11

The National University offers M. Phil and Ph.D. programmes in educational planning and administration from a broader inter-disciplinary social science perspective. The three programmes leading to M.Phil. and Ph.D. degrees are as under:

- i. M.Phil. Programme
- ii. Full-time Ph. D. Programme
- iii. Part-time Ph. D. Programme

These programmes are designed to build the research capacity of scholars from varied backgrounds and provide a strong knowledge and skill base in related areas of educational policy, planning, administration and finance. The research studies completed under the M. Phil. and Ph. D. programmes are expected to make significant contributions in enriching the knowledge base, besides providing critical inputs for policy formulation, implementation of reform programmes and capacity building activities. The broad areas of research covering all levels and types of education would be as under:

Ph.D. students in the classroom

- ◆ Educational Policy
- ◆ Educational Planning
- ◆ Educational Administration
- ◆ Educational Finance
- ◆ Educational Management Information System
- ◆ School Education
- ◆ Higher Education
- ◆ Equity and Inclusion in Education
- ◆ Gender Issues in Education
- ◆ Education of the Minority
- ◆ Comparative Education
- ◆ Education and Globalization

Details within these broad areas are listed in Annexure-I.

The National University follows all mandatory provisions in the reservation policy of the Government of India for admission to its M.Phil. and Ph. D. Programmes.

3. Eligibility

3.1 M. Phil. Programme

- (a) Candidates seeking admission to the M.Phil. Programme shall have minimum of 55% marks (50% for SC/ST and Persons with Disabilities (PWD) candidates) or its equivalent grade in Master's Degree in Social Sciences and allied disciplines from a recognized university.
